FRENCH CAPITAL EXPECTS TO BE BESEIGED BY THE GERMAN ARMY

Kaiser's Troops Will Force Back Allies Until Northern Paris Forts Are Engaged.

IS INDICATED BY ACT TODAY

General Gallient, Chief Strategist of French Army, is Placed in Supreme Command of Defense.

HE GIVES OUT STATEMENT

Entire French Government is Moved to Bordeaux—Fighting at the Same Place Today.

(By United Press.)

Paris, Sept. 3.—Paris expects to be besieged. Military experts insist, however, that to isolate the capital would be too much even for the wonderful German fighting machine. The allied lines expect to be forced back until the Germans engage the northern forts of Paris.

This was demonstrated when the government today placed general Callien in supreme command of the entire defense of Paris. Last Saturday he was named military governor of the city. He is the chief strategist of the French army and knows more of the Paris defenses than any other man.

His announcement today follows: "Every attempt of the enemy to break through at any point in the north has been blocked. The German center has thrown its entire weight against ours without making the slightest impression. We may surprise the Germans yet for their right is engaged in a most deadly struggle."

The general denied stories that French and English wounded are ill treated by the Germans but said that they received equal treatment with the German wounded.

The entire French government is now moved to Bordeaux.

The heaviest fighting on the French front today was that in which the French left and the German right are still engaged, the Germans throwing their greatest weight on all allied line that extended roughly speaking from just south of Montdidier to Roye and to Noyon. The German cavalry had swept south to the neighborhood of Compiègne Soissons, and has been engaged for 48 hours with the United British-French cavalry division. This fighting covers a wide stretch and is reported to be chiefly of a skirmish nature. The fighting between Montdidier, Roye and Noyon is of the most sanguinary character. The allied line is very strongly entrenched and is heavily supported with artillery and machine guns. It is admitted at the war office that the Germans have brought many fresh troops into action and it is considered inevitable that a new line is being formed on which the allies will fall back.

All of the military hospitals south of Paris are filled with wounded brought from the North. Among them are many British. The wounded praise the bravery of the German infantry in the highest terms but state they are being deliberately sacrificed by their officers who keep them in action against artillery without any attempt to silence the guns or to take cover. The Germans move straight ahead in massed for-

LONDON OFFICE IS SILENT TODAY

Because of Absence of Bulletins, Likely Battle Before Paris May be Decisive One.

IF GERMANS ARE CHECKED

Then Allies Will be Ready For Offensive Movement—Rumors About Turkey's Stand.

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 3.—Not one word regarding the condition of the front came from the war office today. Because of this military experts agree the present battle just north of Paris may prove decisive. Should the Germans be checked before the outer forts are reached the allies would be ready for an immediate offensive movement.

The Russian embassy declared today the cossacks were again operating in eastern Prussia and that they had penetrated to a point near the Vistula.

The embassy again insisted the Russians would be within striking distance of Berlin within a month.

Various rumors regarding Turkey are current but nothing official is known and the Turkish ambassador here insists Turkey is remaining neutral.

Communication with the continent was precarious today. The removal of the French government to Bordeaux was expected to interfere with the speedy transmission of news from the immediate theatre of war already subject to delays because of the complicated system of censorship. The government however, continues extremely confident that Paris will not be occupied by the Germans. The belief is growing that the high tide of the German offensive movement has been reached and that the time is approaching when the allies will be able to assume the offensive in turn.

The fact that the Germans have withdrawn all of their forces from Alsace, leaving only a small screen of reservists there is declared to be highly significant. Retrograde advice saying that the fourteenth Austrian army corps is among those which met disaster in the fighting which culminated in the fall of Lemberg show conclusively that the reports of the withdrawals of troops from the west are true. The fourteenth was one of the corps sent from Austria to aid in the campaign against France. That it was withdrawn and sent to Lemberg would indicate that the Petrograd statements that Austria was risking her entire military strength in her invasion of Russian Poland, and in repelling the invasion of Galicia was well founded. It is believed here that there are now no Austrian forces engaged in the fighting in France and that Germany is compelled to depend on her resources.

CARDINAL CHIESA IS ELECTED POPE

Former Assistant Papal Secretary of State and Archbishop of Bologna is Chosen Today.

DECISION ON 9th BALLOT

New Pontiff Chooses to be Known as Benedictus 15—To Name Coronation Date Later.

ELECTION TRIBUTE TO PIUS

It is Considered Certain New Pope Will Carry Out Policies of the Late Pontiff.

BY HENRY WOOD,
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Rome, Sept. 3.—Cardinal Gaetano Della Chiesa archbishop of Bologna and former assistant papal secretary of state was today elected pope, succeeding the late pontiff, Pius X. The election was on the ninth ballot. With all of the ceremony prescribed by the century-old traditions of the Catholic church the new occupant of the Fisherman's throne received the first adoration of the cardinals in the conclave who had balloted since Monday in the election.

The new pontiff chose to be known as Benedictus XV and will later designate the date for his coronation.

With the conclave called while all Europe was involved in a devastating war, which was largely responsible for the death of Pope Pius from a broken heart, the election of Benedictus XV will go down in history as taking place at one of the most critical times in history. Several foreign cardinals have not yet arrived in Rome. Among these absent are Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal O'Connell, of the United States. In the conclave were 57 members of the Sacred College, a majority of them Italians.

The election of Cardinal Della Chiesa to the papal throne is not only a tribute to the late pontiff, but also to his closest adviser, Cardinal Merry Del Val. As assistant secretary of state and later as a cardinal, and archbishop of Bologna, Cardinal Della Chiesa was one of Merry Del Val's most ardent supporters and in return enjoyed the fullest confidence of the secretary of state. Being on the best of terms with the Italian government, it is considered certain that the new pope will carry on the policy of Pope Pius, looking toward the healing of the long-standing breach between the quiri-al and the Vatican.

When the scrutiny of votes today showed the election of Cardinal Della Chiesa, the secretary of the conclave. Masters of ceremonies and the Vatican were at once admitted to the sistine chapel. In accordance with the old traditions the cardinal deacon accompanied by the heads of other orders of the cardinals presented themselves and asked whether the election was accepted. With the reply in the affirmative the canopies over the thrones of all other cardinals dropped to the floor that the newly elected pontiff alone remaining in place. With the admission of Cardinal Della Chiesa's priest the new pontiff was then garbed in the white robe which was in readiness in a cabinet adjoining the chapel.

Attired in his robes as head of the church, Pope Benedictus then ascended the temporary papal throne where he received the first adoration of the cardinals and gave his first

ARE NOW SAFE ON AMERICAN SOIL

Members of Coleman Party of Tourists and Miss Georgia Amos Land in New York Today.

MESSAGES RECEIVED HERE

Miss Coleman Will Arrive Home Tomorrow and Others Will go to Their Various Homes.

All Rushville European tourists for whom relatives and friends here had felt some concern because of the European war are now safe on American soil. The party of school teachers which Henrietta Coleman conducted on a tour and Miss Georgia Amos both landed in New York today.

Mrs. Emily Coleman, mother of Miss Coleman, received a telegram from New York about noon today from Henrietta saying that the party had landed and that she would reach Rushville tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Amos, living south of the city, also received a telegram today from New York stating that their daughter, Miss Georgia, who has been on a tour of Egypt and Italy, had also landed. She will remain in New York a few days and will arrive here the first of next week.

The Coleman party arrived on the Italian steamship San Guglielmo, from Naples. The boat signaled Sandy Hook last night, according to morning dispatches, and was expected to dock the first thing this morning. The vessel sailed from Naples Saturday, August 22 and has been twelve days on the Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos received a cablegram Friday, August 25, stating that Miss Georgia Amos and Miss Charabel Moore of Indianapolis, with whom she traveled, expected to sail that day. It is doubtful if they came on the same steamer as the Coleman party which sailed three days sooner. But it was never learned from what port Miss Amos and Miss Moore sailed. The place was given in the message, but it could not be understood. The belief was that the name had been given wrong in transmitting the message.

Doubtless the members of the Coleman party will go directly to their various homes judging from Miss Carrie Ong, a member of the party, is instructor in English in the Columbus high school. Miss Helen Scott's home is in Clinton, Ind., and Miss Benevise Brown, with Miss Scott, is a teacher in the schools here, lives in Akron, Ind. Miss Zuella Raber, another member of the party, lives in Wolcottville, Ind. She is a sister of O. L. Raber, who taught science in the high school here last year. Mrs. V. P. Bird, the remaining one in the party, lives in Greensburg.

The crowd sailed from New York, Friday, June 20. The S. S. California on which they sailed met with an accident off the Irish coast when it struck a rock and the girls had quite an experience on the first leg of their trip. They landed at Glasgow and proceeded down through Scotland and England and across the channel to Holland. They traveled through Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy, but that is as far as they got. Their itinerary contemplated continued travel through Switzerland and France.

The front at the Gem theatre has been redecorated and changed. The change adds much to the appearance.

INSPECTION TO BEGIN SHORTLY

Fire Chief Walter Easley Will Have Flues Examined to Guard Against Fires.

COMMON CAUSE IN WINTER

Many Will Abandon Use of Gas For Coal or Other Fuel and That's Where Danger Lies.

Anticipating an increased number of fires this winter from defective flues because of a more general use of coal and wood as fuel, Walter Easley, fire chief, will shortly begin a general inspection of the city.

Many people this winter will abandon the use of gas for heating purposes, and as is nearly always the case, the flues are very dangerous when not repaired before using coal or other fuel. The gas, it has been found, seems to eat out the mortar from between the bricks and several fires are known to have resulted from changing from gas to coal without first inspecting the flue.

Fire Chief Easley believes that this is the season of the year when these matters should be looked after and the fire department will use every means to prevent fires. It is planned to have blanks printed and distributed among the members of the fire department. When ever they see a flue that is considered dangerous the blank will be filled out and sent to the property owner. This will be done as a warning and while there is nothing compulsory to the order it will be made for the good of the property owner.

It has been suggested that where the property owners are not certain about the conditions of the flues that they notify the chief and the necessary inspection will be made. Fire Chief Easley will also do some inspecting on his own accord. Basements in the business district, furnaces and other heating systems will be gone over and all fire escapes will be examined carefully.

Fire Chief Easley stated today that he would rather go over the ground himself than send for an assistant fire marshal. There are some places in the city where a visit of the fire marshal would prove costly to the property owners and Mr. Easley believes for this reason the people will co-operate with him in the movement to prevent any costly blaze. The condition of the alleys as well as the buildings will be noted with regard to their cleanliness and the property owner will be requested to remove any trash that might harbor a fire.

Rushville has been fortunate in having few costly fires, but the very slightest neglect might mean thousands of dollars loss and a few dollars spent for prevention is nothing as compared with a fire.

TO INDIANA IF ANY PLACE

Wilson Says he Will Speak Here if He Campaigns at All.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 3.—President Wilson was invited today to speak in the Indiana campaign and he replied that if he entered the campaign at all he will go to Indiana. He intimated, however, that he did not believe he would go on the stump. He is said to believe that it will be unnecessary to take part in the campaign.

Fashion Favors Necessity

White hosiery was never more fashionable and manufacturers and retailers rejoice.

Owing to the shortage of dyes some colors will be difficult to get—and there are no imports from Germany.

But there is plenty of good, trim, well made American white hosiery—the most fashionable shade.

Probably enough colors, too, to go around.

The best brands and the best places to buy them are advertised from time to time in this paper.

MAY ATTEMPT A SECOND STAND

Austrians Falling Back in Disorder Today But May Try to Retrieve Loss of Lemberg.

ARMY CORPS ANNIHILATED

Many of Crack Austrian Corps Completely Wiped Out During Eight Days of Fighting.

(By United Press.)

Perograd, Russia, September 3.—Routed with very heavy losses, the main Austrian army was reported today falling back in disorder on its first line of fortifications behind Lemberg. It is expected a second stand will be made along the defenses of the San river, with the headquarters at the fortified positions of Przemysl and Jaroslaw. The reserve Austrian line was reported to extend from the Carpathian mountains, between the head waters of the Dnieper and the San, along the San nearly to Annapol.

The Austrian left in Russian Poland was the only part of the line that has held and it was today being subjected to enormous pressure, heavy reinforcements having been sent to the enemy operating against it. As a result of the last eight days of fighting five of the crack Austrian army corps and third, seventh, eleventh, twelfth and fifteenth, have been practically annihilated. Their reserve supplies of ammunition, 150 guns of all calibre field equipment and field supplies of all descriptions, have been captured. Thousands of prisoners, including many officers of high rank, have been captured.

The German garrison of Konigsburg attempted a sortie in force against the Russian forces which have isolated the citadel. They were driven back with very heavy losses. The official reports issued today describe the situation everywhere as "satisfactory." The Russian army at the front is being constantly reinforced from the active army mobilized at the interior centers and the two corps, wiped out in the fighting in East Prussia last week, have been replaced with fresh troops.

The sally of the Germans from Konigsburg was a desperate one. Under cover of the darkness they burst forth and threw their entire strength against the Russian besieging forces. They had automatic guns mounted on automobiles which they used with deadly effect. The Russian forces, it is announced, fought with desperate bravery and finally checked the assault. The Germans finally retreated to the citadel, leaving many dead and wounded behind. Their losses are described as enormous.

The Vovoe Voevya charges that the Austrian troops which have been bombarding Belgrade in total disregard of the Red Cross flag floating over a maternity hospital there shelled the building and killed more than 100 babies. It declares that this charge was substantiated by a staff correspondent who made an investigation.

"LODGERS" AT JAIL CONSUME ALL "EVIDENCE" OF BLIND TIGER RAID

Four Prisoners "Confiscate" Whiskey Believed to be Out of Their Reach and "Tank Up."

NO MORE DRINKS FOR JAIL

The prisoners at the county jail "slipped one over" on Sheriff Cavitt yesterday by consuming what was left of the "evidence" taken in a raid on the Marion Willis store over a year ago. The "evidence" consisted of several half pint bottles of whiskey which had been stored at the jail awaiting the disposal of the case against Willis.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Cavitt was called to Milroy to make an arrest. Before going, he put Omer Adams to work painting the "bum" cell and allowed the other three prisoners the freedom of the corridors. When he returned he found Manuel Dunwoody and one other prisoner very much "tanked" and upon investigating found that they had taken a stick and pulled the bottles from the box into the jail proper.

On searching the cells the sheriff found about a dozen half-pint bottles which were empty, leaving him to believe that the picnic for the prisoners had been going on for some time. The prisoners had a big time at the expense of the city. Sheriff Cavitt thought he had the "booze" stored in a safe place and never once believed the prisoners would attempt to get it. From now on drinks at the jail will be few and far between as they drained the supply.

benediction. The cardinals first knelt then kissed the foot of the new pope, then the hand and at last were embraced by him.

These ceremonies concluded, the ring of St. Peter which had been in charge of the cardinal Camerlengo was presented to Pope Benedictus. Precedent prescribes that the cardinals shall then retire to their cells until public announcement of the election is made. The walls of the conclave are then broken.

NEW POPE BORN NEAR GENOA

Ordained to Priesthood in 1878 and Appointed Archbishop in 1907.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 3.—Cardinal Della Chiesa was born at Pedli near Genoa in Italy in 1854. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1878 and went to Madrid as secretary of the Nuncio in 1883, remaining there until 1887. He returned to Rome and acted as a minor official in the office of the papal secretary of state. In 1909 the late cardinal Rampolla, then the secretary of state, recognized his ability and promoted him to be Substitute, or virtually first assistant secretary of state. Pope Pius X, in 1907 appointed him archbishop of Bologna, Italy. There he remained as archbishop until he was created cardinal as the last consistory held early this year.

Cardinal Della Chiesa is regarded here as being a man very similar to Cardinal Rampolla. It was to Cardinal Rampolla that he owed the promotion of the office of vice secretary of state which brought him to the attention of Pope Pius and probably enabled him to get the Red Hat only seven years after he had been made archbishop.

Kilted Highlanders Are Fun for the Frenchmen

(By United Press.)

Paris, (by mail to New York,) Sept. 3.—A never-ending source of wonder and delight to the French country folk are the kilted Highland regiments with the British expeditionary force. The Highlander in full gala rig, scarlet tunic, tartan phillibag with the gay sporran, or pouch, white gaiters and big bearskin headdress, is a thing of beauty and a joy forever at home, and even now clad in khaki he is a remarkable sight for foreigners.

The French could hardly believe their eyes when they saw the husky regiments wearing what appears to be short petticoats. True the garment was of khaki, like the jacket, but it was undoubtedly a petticoat. The inhabitants of the country through which they are passing generally put them down as some wild troupe of Amazons which the mad English keep for serious fighting. When told that the kilted warriors are really men, and Scotchmen, they remembered the famous Scotch guards of the old French kings and shout "Vivent Les Ecossais."

The bagpipes are another attraction and when the Gordons are stepping out to "The Cock of the North" or "The Argyll and Sutherlands are announcing their presence with "The Campbells are Coming", whole villages follow them for miles. There are four highland regiments with the British army, the two above mentioned, and the Black Watch and Camerons.

mation until they are almost annihilated.

It is stated that the number of prisoners taken by the French runs well into the thousands. Many scouting parties of Uhlans have been trapped and cut off. Many of the German officers taken prisoner admit that they have been completely surprised by the stubborn defense of the allies. They had hoped to completely overwhelm the French defense by a guard attack in force but have found this impossible. These prisoners confirm the reports of terrible German losses.

English's Opera House, Indianapolis, is the objective point of all state fair visitors, because this theatre has always taken pains to provide an extra fine attraction for this occasion. This year the attraction is to be Thomas W. Ryler's new musical comedy. "The Queen of the Movies," which will play the entire week with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Translated from the German by Glen MacDonough. "The Queen of the Movies" has lent itself readily to American adaption without the usual fundamental revisions. In the first place, it has a well defined plot—a plot which, though simple and easily handled in musical comedy style, holds the interest of the audience throughout. Secondly, the German authors have laid the scene of their sketch in Washington, D. C., a fact which makes it comparatively easy for the dramatist on this side of the water to inject the necessary Americanizations.

The music is by Jean Gilbert, the youthful Berlin composer, who has jumped into such sudden popularity abroad and is well known in America, as well, several of his musical productions having been produced here with great success.

A splendid cast of singing and dancing artists, good comedians and plenty of good lines to give these comedians opportunity for funmaking, all go to make "The Queen of the Movies" an attraction that you won't want to miss when you go to Indianapolis for the state fair.

Posey Township Convention.

The Republicans of Posey township will hold a convention at the Arlington high school building Saturday evening, September 5, at seven-thirty o'clock. Speeches will be made by Pat Lynch, Republican candidate for congress, and Will M. Sparks, Republican candidate for judge of the Rush circuit court.

Robert's Candidacy.

An other matter that is causing a great deal of worry and apprehension among the Democratic machine leaders is the candidacy of Donn Roberts of Terre Haute for governor. Roberts is a man who was tried in the Vigo circuit court last spring on charges of election corruption and acquitted after a mysterious conference at the Dennison House at Indianapolis in which Crawford Fairbanks, the big brewer who liked to be referred to as the boss of the Democratic party, participated. The late John E. Lamb of Terre Haute one of the biggest figures in Indiana Democracy in the last twenty years, a few months before his death, referred publicly to Roberts as follows:

"His only claim to political distinction lies in his ability to stuff ballot boxes, pad poll books, and vote repeaters."

For several weeks the better element of Indiana Democracy including the editors of most every Democratic newspaper in the State has been hoping the announcement of Roberts's candidacy for governor was a joke. It developed however, that Roberts is not only an active candidate for the nomination of Governor but he will be able to go into the contest with the support of some of the biggest influences in the Democratic machine at his back.

Another thing that is said to be worrying the Democratic machine leaders is the possibility that Governor Ralston may be driven from the stump on account of the acts of the last Legislature for which he, in the end, will be held responsible by the people of the State of Indiana. It is said that Democratic machine leaders recognize the fact that if someone asked Governor Ralston in the course of one of his public addresses, how it happened that laws were written in the Indiana statutes without having been passed by the legislature, he will not only be greatly embarrassed but every law loving Democrat in Indiana will be embarrassed.

The Democratic state committee has decided to delay Governor Ralston's appearance on the stump as late as possible. It had been said that he would make his first appearance on Sept. 10th, now the announcement is made that he will not appear until September 15. Shrewd political observers say that they would not be surprised, if before that date rolls around, announcement is made that Governor Ralston would not take the stump in behalf of Homer L. Cook and the Democratic state ticket.

Another thing that is worrying the Taggart machine leaders is the fact that Congress probably will remain in session until well along this month. They have been counting on the Democratic senators and the Democratic representatives carrying the burden of the fighting in the public speaking campaign. With these men not available for service, the Taggart machine leaders now realize that they will be in a bad way to make a public defense of the acts of the last Legislature and the Democratic extravagance in the conduct of affairs which resulted in a material increase in the state tax levy.

The Taggart machine leaders realize it is said that they will have a great amount of explaining to do in this campaign, and it has now become a serious proposition with them to secure enough explainers to do the work.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

STANFORD WITHDRAWS.

(Connersville News.)

The withdrawal of Attorney Leiland Stanford, of Liberty, from the race for Judge of this Judicial district is the act of an honorable man, one who could not ever by indirection knowingly aid a movement to thwart the will of the general public of the district. Mr. Stanford is eminently fitted for the Judgeship and under normal conditions would have commanded a heavy vote in the district. But the judicial campaign opened this year long before party organizations got into action. As the News has contended from the first the fight to oust George L. Gray from office—and always has been—nonpartisan. Confronted by charges that if true render him wholly unfit to serve on the bench, that even to date he has not attempted logically to answer, the people of all parties determined there must be a change. Raymond Springer was found to be available as a candidate and people of all parties at once pledged him generous support. Though Mr. Springer is, and was nominated as a Republican, these pledges had come in great numbers from voters all over the district. Mr. Springer had gained a start that neither Mr. Stanford nor any other man could overcome. It has been the forlorn hope of Gray and his henchmen to keep a third man in the field. To this end one or more utterly false statements appeared in a Liberty paper in the interest of Gray in attempting to show that this paper had made an attack on Stanford. The Progressive party was entirely within its rights in putting a third candidate in the field to complete its organization and they made a worthy selection. But the die had been cast. From the first, even dating back to their nominating convention, it was manifest that the paramount aim of many delegates and party members was to rid the district of George L. Gray as Judge. Mr. Stanford, able lawyer and keen reasoner that he is, rightly interpreting the true situation, has retired, leaving the public entirely unhampered in their fight to restore to the people the benefits of a properly administered judicial system.

"These are official documents received direct from the Berlin foreign office," said Saches. "The German government would not manufacture lies. I declare these telegrams to tell the truth."

Republican Party Management

Plank From Platform Adopted by Indiana Republican State Convention April 23, 1914.

Recognizing that party management and control should, at all times, be responsive to, and representative of, the sentiment and will of the membership of the party, and, believing that an indifferent attitude toward this principle has been responsible in a great measure for party dissensions in the past, we pledge ourselves to such reforms in the methods of party organization, management and control that in the future, the right of individual participation on the part of membership within the party shall be sacred and inviolate and we further pledge ourselves that party programs, party platforms and party candidates shall be expressive only of the majority sentiment within the party, free from dictation or duress on the part of party management. And we heartily indorse the action of the national committee in readjusting the basis of representation in national conventions of the party and in revising the rules governing the making up of the temporary roll.

1913 LEGISLATURE MAKES "SALARY GRAB" RECORD

Democratic Machine Leaders Waste Tax Payers Money in a Reckless Manner—Some Interesting Figures.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The Democratic legislature of 1913 was the worst salary grabbing session in the history of the State of Indiana. The last general assembly increased salaries to the amount of $61,070 a year. This includes additional pay given to persons in the state house, in different parts of the state, extra compensation to judges, etc. It includes the additional pay voted to county officers, circuit and superior judges and others. It does not include about $67,000 paid the Crawford Fairbanks-Tom Taggart Democratic machine's wards in the legislature, the $31,000 for printing and supplies, the $32,000 increased salaries in Indianapolis, nor the increased appropriations to different institutions, boards and commissions.

Here are some of the "salary grabs" that were pulled off by the Democratic machine through the agency of the 1913 general assembly.

State superintendent of public instruction from $3,500 to $5,000. Increase $1,500.

Assistant superintendent of public instruction from $2,000 to $2,500. Increase, $500.

Deputy state superintendent of public instruction from $1,500 to $1,800. Increase, $300.

Clerk in state superintendent's office from $1,200 to $1,400. Increase, $200.

Clerk in the office of secretary of state from $1,500 to $1,800. Increase, $300.

Recording clerk in the office of the secretary of state from $1,000 to $1,200.

Stenographer in the office of secretary of state from $720 to $900. Increase, $180.

Clerk and stenographer in the office of secretary of state from $720 to $900. Increase $180.

Oil inspector from $2,500 to $3,500, and $500 was given that office for traveling expenses and $500 for office expenses, making a total increase of $2,000.

Clerk to the oil inspector from $900 to $1,200. Increase $300.

Executive clerk in the Governor's office from $900 to $1,200.

Assistant bank clerk and securities clerk in the office of the auditor of state from $720 to $900. Increase, $180.

Clerk and bookkeeper in the state treasurer's office from $1,800 to $2,000. Increase, $200.

Five stenographers and clerks to the judges of the supreme court from $800 to $840 each. Increase, $200.

Clerk of the state printing board from $1,500 to $2,500. Increase, $1,000.

Assistant clerk of the printing board from $900 to $1,500. Increase, $600.

Clerk of the board of forestry from $600 to $720. Increase $120.

Pay of the employees at the Soldiers and Sailors' monument increased $1,000.

Assistant deputy clerk of the supreme and appellate courts from $1,200 to $1,500. Increase, $300.

Fee clerk in the office of the clerk of the supreme and appellate courts from $750 to $900. Increase, $150.

Second assistant reporter of the supreme and appellate courts from $1,500 to $2,000. Increase, $500.

Clerk of the board of public accounts from $2,500 to $2,800. Increase, $300.

The salary of each traveling deputy attorney-general from $1,200 to $1,600. Increase, $400. The law does not specify the number of traveling deputies, so there is no telling how many are grabbing on the $400 increase.

Second deputy attorney-general from $1,800 to $2,100. Increase, $300.

MILLER IS BETTING FAVORITE

Bet Is Posted That Miller Will Receive Three Times as Many Votes as Beveridge.

Two interesting wagers were posted recently on an Indianapolis betting board. The first was an offer of $250 to $1,000 that Hugh Th. Miller, Republican nominee for United States senator, will receive twice as many votes as does Beveridge. The other was an offer of $250 to $2,000 that Miller polls three times as many votes as Beveridge.

FACTS REGARDING 1913 LEGISLATURE

The 1913 Democratic legislature cost the tax payers of Indiana $532,500 more for each day of the session than did the 1907 session—the last one under Republican control. There were 150 members in both legislatures. Each lasted 61 days.

The records show that the Taggart-Fairbanks Democratic machine employed 63 doorkeepers for the House during the 1913 legislative session. There are only four doors to the House Chamber.

The last Democratic State Senate bought 5,187 writing pens. There were only 50 senators. The Democratic House made up of 100 members bought 2,452 writing pens. They also had to have 2,476 lead pencils and they also found it advisable to employ a large number of typewriters and they dug into the State treasury in a substantial way to pay the bills. The Democratic Senate bought 24 key rings, but for what purpose it has not yet been explained.

The Democratic Senate also bought 12 rolls of pink tape and the Democratic House bought the same amount.

The last Democratic House bought six large needles, but the Democratic Senate only ordered two.

The cost of printing and supplies used by the last Democratic Legislature was $31,917.49. Of that sum about $12,000 was spent for printing and the balance $19,917.49 being expended for supplies and when the Senate adjourned practically all of the supplies that were left over disappeared except a desk, that was too unwieldy to be carried away and a lot of blank forms that could not be used for any purpose, but for the one for which they were printed, nor could be sold for waste paper.

The last Democratic legislature bought 120,000 letterheads and envelopes.

The last Democratic legislature bought 2,743 blotters and 134,500 pins.

The rubber bands bought by the last Democratic legislature cost the tax payers of Indiana $238.20.

Mr. Indiana Taxpayer How Do You Like This?

Indianapolis, Ind., July 2. — The total expenses of the government of the State of Indiana during 1908, the last year of the last Republican administration, was $4,724,253.39. In 1913, under a Democratic administration of the state's affairs, the total expense was $4,966,168.37, an increase of $241,914.98. This is one of the reasons why the Democratic state legislature of 1913 saw fit to raise the state tax levy.

Here are some figures from the official state records that show very plainly that the taxpayers of Indiana are paying dearly for the present Democratic brand of state government. In 1908, during the last year of the last Republican state administration, the salaries and expenses of all regular standing boards and commissions totalled $242,558.02. In 1913, under Democratic rule, the salaries and commissions of all regular standing boards and commissions totalled $428,521.60, an increase of $185,963.58, or 76.6 per cent.

Why should the taxpayers of Indiana pay $185,963.58 more in salaries and expenses for standing boards and commissions in one year under a Democratic administration than was paid during the same length of time under a Republican administration? This is another one of the big reasons why your taxes are so high.

Why should the legislative session of 1907, under a Republican administration cost but $130,000 while the session of 1913 under a Democratic administration, cost the taxpayers $162,000? Both the sessions were 60 days in length and there were the same number of members in both houses in the session of 1907 as there were in the session of 1913.

The truth of the matter is that most of the increase in the cost of the Democratic session went to doorkeepers and clerks who were not needed—employees whose hardest work was to draw their salaries. There were men on the payroll of the last state legislature at straight salary for the full session who did not average one day in Indianapolis each week during the session.

A vote for the Democratic state ticket this year will be interpreted by the Democratic politicians as an approval of this reckless expenditure of the taxpayers money.

MANY FANS GOING ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Baseball Special Over L. E. & W. to Newcastle Sunday Will Leave Here at 12:30 O'clock.

ARCADIANS EXPECT TO WIN

Arrangements have been completed for the running of the special train over the L. E. & W. to Newcastle Sunday for the ball game between the Arcadians and the Newcastle Hoosiers. The train will leave here at 12:30 o'clock and returning leave Newcastle at 6:30 o'clock. The train will make all stops between here and Newcastle and the fans of these towns will have a chance to make the trip.

From all indications a large crowd will make the trip as the fans are anxious to see the Arcadians defeat Newcastle on their home lot. This trick has never been accomplished as yet by a Rushville team and great interest is being taken in the game. The Arcadians will remain over in Newcastle for a game Monday and the team is confident of winning both contests. Geary, Heller and Fox will be the Rushville pitchers and the fans can expect some real baseball.

BRAVES GIVING GIANTS BATTLE

Many Fans Around National Circuit Look to see Stallings' Outfit Win the Pennant

MACK HAS AMERICAN CINCHED

Bill Radiden, Who Jumped to Feds Has Not Been Missed by Boston. Well Balanced Team.

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Sept. 3.—With the season but a little more than a month to run Connie Mack's wonderful ball club—the Athletics—seen to have the American league pennant lashed to their mast. Only the greatest kind of a miracle could prevent the mackian phalanx from annexing another flag. The Athletics are so far ahead of their nearest rivals that the fans around the circuit have lost interest. They are spending their time now figuring what will oppose Mack's bunch in the big series this fall.

George Stallings' Braves of Boston seem to be an almost unanimous choice for the honor of meeting the Athletics. The wonderful work of the Beantown club since July 1 has impressed all the critics around both major loops and many are doing them to beat the Athletics if it falls to them to defend the National league in the big setto.

In view of this it might not be amiss to scan the personnel of this Boston gang and see just exactly who's who. Of course, the main cog in the Boston machine is Johnny Evers former Cub and rated as the premier second sacker in the game.

Stallings gives Evers credit for the great playing his club has been putting up. He declares that Evers has directed the work on the field like a Napoleon and that his courage has inspired every other member of the team.

Ever's running mate in guarding the keynote sack is Maranville, the smallest ball player in captivity. He is even more of a midget than Ownie Bush, the diminutive Tiger star. With Evers coaching him along, Maranville's work this season has been a revelation. Possessing almost perfect mechanical ability, Maranville is fast developing into a brainy player as well and when he picks up a few more finer points of the national pastime he will be the leading artist in the line. Evers waxes mightily enthusiastic over this youngster. "He's the greatest mechanical shortstop in the game right now," Evers said recently. "And it won't be long at the rate he is developing until he will be as brainy as any of them. You want to watch his smoke when he reaches the top."

"Red" Smith, erstwhile member of the Brooklyn club, is guarding the hard corner—third base—for the Braves. This position had worried Stallings all year until he landed Smith. It had been one of the weak points on the team. Smith, filled the hole. Although not a finished fielder he is more than making up for deficiency by the manner in which he is larruping the horsehide. His hitting has played an important part in many of the Brave's victories.

Stallings fooled the wise ones around the Tener circuit by keeping Schmidt on first base. When the season opened and it was seen Stallings was going to depend on Schmidt to hold down first base, the critics began to pan the Boston manager. Schmidt wouldn't do, they said. Schmidt fooled the wise ones and proved the worth of Stallings' judgment. The big fellow has been playing a remarkably good fielding game. He was raw at the start of the season but he proved noticeably every day and it wasn't long until he took on a polish that stamped him as better than the ordinary. And he has been hitting at good clip right along, being one of the most consistent clubbers on the team.

Gowdy, an ex-Giant, is doing the bulk of the catching for the Braves. Whaling is his first assistant. With the loss of Bill Radiden, who jumped to the Feds, it was predicted that the Boston catching staff would be weak. On the contrary it has been proven strong all year. Gowdy has been driving in more than his share of the Braves runs.

Boston's pitching staff is already pretty well known as the result of its great work since July 1. The staff—that is the active staff—consists of Tyler a southpaw, and Rudolph and James, right handers. These three have done practically all of the flinging for the Beantown club. Stallings has juggled them along and despite the fact that they are all small men, as pitchers go, they have never shown signs of weakening under the strain. Besides the star trio, Stallings has several classy youngsters who look mighty good. Crutcher and Strand both have taken part in several games and look to have the making of stars.

The outfield is a well balanced department. Devore, former Giant, Catcher, former Card, Whitted, Connolly, are most frequently in the lineup. Stallings uses many changes in his outfield using left hand batters on the day right hand pitchers are working against his club and right hand hitters when southpaws are working. That his judgment has been good is shown by the standing of the Braves in the percentage column.

RUSH COUNTY TO PLAY BIG PART

Both Local Trainers and Horses Will be up in Front at State Fair Races Next Week

ENTRIES MADE FROM HERE

Frank Lindsay Wins 2:35 Trot at Shelbyville Wednesday With Wila—Hayt Colt in Money

George A. Ryan, best Indiana authority today mentions some Rush county horses and drivers in connection with an article in the Indianapolis Star concerning the races at the Indiana state fair next week.

Lucy Reynolds, by Simmore, owned by Elmer Humes of this city, is entered in the 2:30 trot Tuesday. She is being trained by Mart Wilson, a Rush county man, and will be raced by him. Ryan says she has been trotting around 2:10 for several weeks and a few days ago stepped in 2:09. Ryan declares that Mr. Humes is one of those owners who believes they should be educated before sending them to the races. The mare is entered in the :27 trot Monday and the :24 trot Wednesday and may start in any one of the three.

Aileen Patch, owned by Albert Capp and Frank Wilson of this city and raced by Dick Wilson of Rushville, is entered in the 2:20 trot on Tuesday's program. This daughter of The Patchen Boy has been a consistent winner on the half mile tracks this year and Ryan says she will be seen down the big line next year. She won at Newcastle and Connersville, but was cheated out of a race at the county fair here last week by the rain. She was to have started the last day. The mare will be raced at Shelbyville tomorrow. Ryan declares that the mare is a good one because Dick Wilson would not be apt to bother with a trotter that has no class. Wilson and Capp have The Jester, a bay gelding with the mark of 2:29, by The Exponent, entered in the :27 trot Monday and the :24 trot Wednesday.

Harrie Jones of this city is expected to let them know he is in the race when he draws the reins up over the back of Gentle Zoe in the 2:10 trotting class Thursday. The Indiana horse critic says she has been going good on the county fair circuit and should be ready for the mile tracks next year. She is owned by J. E. Whiteselle of Corsicana, Texas.

Ryan says Curt Gosnell's product, F. A. L., by Anderson Wilkes, who has been a mile in 2:11½ over a half mile track, will be a contender. He is entered to race either in the 2:15 trotting class Monday or the 2:17 class for trotters Friday.

The Maid, a daughter of Charley Hayt, the little bay stallion owned here, is believed to be better than ever, according to Ryan. She is owned by Oscar Wright of Franklin, Ind. She is another of the consistent county fair winners. She was one of the surprises of the southern circuits last fall.

Wila, a bay mare by Walnut Hall, won the 2:35 trot in straight heats at the Shelby county fair at Shelbyville yesterday. Frank Lindsay, a Rush county trainer, held the reins. The best time was 2:34.

Tommy Hayt, a son of Charley Hayt, divided third and fourth money in the 2:25 pace with Miss Directly at Shelbyville yesterday. He is owned in this county. He won the first heat of the race, the best time of which was :26.

ALLIES POSITION IS SATISFACTORY

All of Their Lines Appear to be Holding the Germans Except The Western Wing.

SIGNIFICANT RETREATS

Russia Misjudges Strength of Austrians and Has to Halt March on Berlin For That Reason.

New York, Sept. 3.—Russia's advance on Berlin has been checked and the encouraging hope of the allies in the west of a quick Slav movement into the heart of Germany is fading. Russia's initial strategy has failed for the same reason that France's first drawn plans were defeated. The general staffs of both countries were dominated by a passion for an immediate offensive at all costs and in each case the offensive was the wrong thing to do at the moment.

Russia has had to halt her march through east Prussia, probably fifty miles from the German first line of defense along the Vistula, because her strategists underestimated Austria's strength. The persistent penetration into Poland of Austrian forces appear to have been belittled at Petrograd (to acknowledge Russia's new anti-German name for her capital) until there came a realization that the Russian left flank would be in imminent danger if the advance on Berlin were continued.

Semi-appreciation of the danger doubtless was felt a week ago and accounts for the sudden absence of news concerning Russia's second army which was reported to be moving on Dosen. This army undoubtedly was diverted to the South to check the Austrians, but with such little success that all Russia's military plans now have had to halt in the North while the underestimated Austrian danger in the South is obliterated.

The distance between the late scene of Russia's advance through East Prussia and her present operations about Lemberg, in Galicia, is three hundred miles. Strategic conditions in the two areas are curiously similar. In the North, Russia's stationary troops face the heavily fortified Vistula, while in the South the San river, with the two strong military centers at Przemyel and Jaroslav, fifty miles west of the Russian front at Lemberg, bare the route to the west.

The position of the allies in France is not unsatisfactory. All the lines appear to be holding the Germans except the western wing which has had to give way slightly. There is much significance in the direction of the retreat which, according to the French official report, has taken place to the west and southwest. This means the left wing of the allies refuses to be driven eastward to be locked up in the La Fere-Laon fortresses, as the Germans so much desire. Instead the left army is keeping itself intact in the field.

The intimation from Paris that Montdidier marks the new central position of the allies in the western operations, means a splendid strategic position has been assumed. Montdidier is on high ground commanding the three roads that lead through the Angie formed by the Somme and Avre rivers running from Amiens towards the LaFere fortifications. Montdidier Roye, Noyon and Compiene form the corners of a quadrilateral of highways important to preserve if the German turning movement around LaFere is to be defeated.

Latest Picture of the Kaiser, Who Risks All on This War.

This is the latest formal picture of the German kaiser. It was taken shortly before the war began. Europe's war lord is easily the most commanding, powerful and interesting figure in the conflict. He has for years been preparing for this great struggle. He is now risking everything—the power of his empire, the future of his people and the stability of his own dynasty—by hurling his mighty fighting machine against some of the greatest nations of the world. What fate awaits William II?

TALK ORGANIZATION AT MEETING HERE

Republican Workers Meet in Court House With Organizer From State Headquarters

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB PLANNED

The Republican precinct committeemen and party workers met with State Organizer Hayes yesterday afternoon in the court house assembly room. The meeting was simply an organization meeting and plans for the campaign and advice for the workers of this county were the topic. The organization committee from state headquarters is making a canvass of all the districts and urging the importance of a complete organization.

Several lines of work were discussed and the young men's movement was launched. Jack Higgins of Newcastle told of the plan to organize the young men in every county in the district. The organization will be known as the Jackson club and the plan as suggested will be put in force here in a short time. Pat Lynch, of Newcastle, Republican candidate for congress, was present and made a brief talk.

Other speakers were Judge Forkner, also of Newcastle and Capt. John K. Gowdy of this city. Capt. Gowdy was the only local man to speak.

CABLE WAS DEFECTIVE.

The cable to hang the weight which controls the striking of the court house clock has arrived, but upon examination Joe Dickman, custodian, found that it was defective in several places and notified the company. A new cable will be sent but it will not be many days before the clock will be striking again. The old cable broke recently and the weight fell, striking a steel beam. Plastering on the ceiling of the third floor was jarred loose.

War Brings Revival of Tattooing Craze

(By United Press.)

London (By mail to New York). Sept. 3.—War has brought with it a revival of the craze for tattooing in London. Soldiers going to the front, especially territorials, want to have their skins decorated before leaving and the professional tattooers are doing a rushing business.

"They come with pals, like a man going to have a tooth pulled," said a Tottenham court road tattooer in telling of the rush. "Many bring their own designs, such as a heart with the name of a girl underneath, or two hearts with hands clasped across and the name of the girl. Other designs are of for-get-me-nots with the name of the girl, the year etc."

"For King and Country, 1914" tattooed in colors across the chest is one of the favorites outside of the love designs. The French tricolor and Union Jack entwined has also been in demand. One member of the rangers had the badge of his regiment tattooed on his arm in a design three by four inches.

Many girls, sweethearts of soldiers have also been tattooed. A majority of the young women have had their arms marked with designs in for-get-me-nots with the name of their soldier lover and the year underneath.

One soldier calling on the Tottenham Court road tattooer appeared with the top of his head shaved and had a picture of King George tattooed on the bald spot.

SHIP OF MERCY TO SAIL

Red Cross Vessel Will Leave Harbor Next Monday

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 3.—Painted a snowy white, with a broad red band about her hull, the ship of mercy, Hamburg, will sail from New York Monday instead of Saturday. On board will be 120 nurses and thirty surgeons. Every one on the ship, including the sailors, will be American born. The Red Cross ship also will carry a fund of $1,000,000 to be used in the relief work. The ship was to have started Saturday, but had to be held over to be re-painted. Miss Mabel Boardman, of Washington, head of the Red Cross will remain in New York until the ship sails.

TO ASK FOR WAR TAX TOMORROW

President Wilson Will Appear Before Joint Session But Will Not Suggest Means to be Used.

WILL POINT TO DECREASES

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 3.—President Wilson will appear before the joint session of the house and senate at 12:30 tomorrow afternoon, it was announced after a conference between Wilson and Majority Leader Underwood today, to ask for a war tax to raise $100,000,000.

The president's address will not suggest the means of raising this amount, it was stated. Underwood has a plan of securing the money, which he will reveal to the ways and means committee soon. He refused today to disclose any of its details but said the bill will probably be reported in the house next week.

The president's message will point to the $11,000,000 decrease last month and will argue that the treasury should be strengthened at this time so that there need be no withdrawal of funds from banks which need them particularly at this time on account of crop movement and in European business.

Types of Italian Soldiers Who Are Mobilized and Under Orders.

Photos by American Press Association.

Italy's stand in the European war caused much comment from the start. It was thought when Austria declared war on Serbia that Italy would naturally stand with Germany and Austria under the agreement of the triple alliance, but Italy at once declared her neutrality. She claimed that she was not bound by the understanding with Germany and Austria inasmuch as those countries had not been invaded, but were themselves the invaders. It later became evident that Italy's sympathies had switched around to the allies, and when she ordered the mobilization of her troops it was generally believed that she would soon declare war on Austria, thus involving Germany. Italian soldiers are shown here intrenched for battle. The type of Italian infantry composing most of the army is also shown.

GIVING BETTER CARE TO PATIENTS

Ohio Figures That Hospitalization of One Consumption Prevents Infection of Ten Others

CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN STARTED

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Sept. 3.—Hospitalization of one consumptive prevents the infection of 10 other people. Hospital care and treatment provide practically the one chance of recovery for the patient.

These are the facts on which the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis and the division of tuberculosis of the state health board are basing their present campaign to procure adequate hospital facilities for consumptives. It is estimated that there are 35,000 residents of the state now suffering from the "great white plague."

State health officials have outlined 12 tentative hospital districts of from four to six counties each, wherein campaigns will be started for the erection of district tuberculosis hospitals to be maintained jointly by the co-operating counties.

Sixty-five of Ohio's 88 counties have no provision for the hospital care of their tuberculosis victims. It is in these counties that the campaign is to be waged. This movement is possible now for the first time in the history of the state through the enactment of the amended county district tuberculosis hospital law by the last legislature.

WORK AT YALE

(By United Press.)

Madison, Conn. Sept. 3.—Yale cracked open the 1914 football preliminaries this afternoon when Head Coach Frank Hinky put a squad of candidates through a limbering up practice. Several veterans answered today's call. There were also a number of promising heavyweights from last year's freshman eleven, as well as several second string men on last year's varsity team. Hinky's plan is to keep the men at the limbering up process for two weeks so that when real practice begins about Sept. 17 the men will be ready to start right in at serious work. Hinky, it was stated today, will drill this year's eleven in straight, simple football, and pay little attention to complicated formations.

BRITISH REPORT ON LOSSES IN WAR

Demonstrates English Officers Lead Men Because of High Percentage of Casualties

MISSING NUMBERS OVER 4,000

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 3.—The first report received from General French regarding the British casualties, which covers only the earlier movements in the field, again demonstrates that the British officers lead their men.

The percentage of casualties to the officers is high, a mute tribute to their heroism. It is carefully explained that this is only a partial report and that it does not deal with the recent fighting.

The British field marshal reports: British officers killed, 36; wounded 57; missing, 95; British soldiers killed 72; wounded, 629; missing, 4,183.

STAND ON RATES HELPS WOODMEN

Members are Rapidly Going Back to Order Following Agreement Reached at Toledo

NEW ERA OF PROSPERITY

(By United Press.)

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 3.—Less than three months after the Modern Woodmen of America at their triennial encampment at Toledo, came to a compromise agreement on the question of rates and the head camp receded from its stand for a rate advance, it has become apparent that the order is entering on a new era of prosperity.

At the close of the encampment it was predicted that the hundred thousand or more persons who had withdrawn from the society would come in for reinstatement before the end of the year. It is now stated at the head camp offices here that this number will be greatly exceeded. It is believed also that because of the healing of the dissensions in the society new accessions, which had practically ceased, will recommence.

Jack Smith of Milroy Gets $1 and Costs For Drawing Deadly Weapons on His Family.

HE OBJECTS TO MOVING

Jack Smith of Milroy was fined one dollar and costs, amounting to $12.75, this morning by Squire Kratzer on the charge of drawing deadly weapons. Smith was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Cavitt on complaint of his mother, Mrs. Mary Smith, who alleged that he was threatening to kill the family. Mrs. Smith had been advised by physicians to break up housekeeping on account of her health and Jack objected to the taking of the furniture from the house. So insistent was he in his demands that he drew a revolver and threatened to shoot anyone who attempted to move the furniture. Smith was brought to the jail here and the hearing held this morning. On the promise to be good, the surety of peace proceedings against him were dropped.

The Storm Buggy Season Is Open

and we know right in the beginning that we are in a position to furnish you with a Storm Buggy with more up-to-date features, better quality and less price than any dealer in this section of the globe. We really have buggies with doors that won't rattle, and many other new features not found elsewhere. Don't make the mistake the old man did when he started to lead the two calves to pasture. You know how that was? He was leading the calves and when he came to a gate that was hard to open he tied a calf to each boot strap and when he opened the gate the calves ran away with the old man and dragged him at a fast pace over the rough ground. His wife finally reached his side and released him and upbraided him for a fool and asked him if he didn't know better than to tie calves to his boots. "Yes, Ann," he replied, "I didn't get more than four rods until I discovered my mistake." That is the way with some people buying buggies. They find out their mistake too late to do them any good and it is their own fault, because it costs you nothing to look at our buggies and all we want is a chance to show you. We know you will buy them if you look them over. Will you do it? Our advice is do it now.

PETTY THIEVING WORRIES PEOPLE

Residents of East Eighth Street Are
Increased by Operations of Robbers the Last Few Weeks.

QUANTITIES OF FRUIT STOLEN

Develops Today Thieves Who Attempted to Enter Homes Hid
Under W. M. Sparks' House.

The people of East Eighth street are very much incensed over petty thieving that has been going on in that neighborhood the last few weeks. Only last night the thieves stole four watermelons from Max Goldstein. They were left in a wagon in front of his home. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ogden, 313 East Eighth street, just across the street from Goldstein's home, can't keep any peaches on their trees. They are stolen just as fast as they ripen. It is understood Mr. Goldstein has missed melons before. Other persons living in other parts of the city have complained of late of things being stolen from their back porches.

Only Tuesday night Nightwatchman Sullivan frustrated an attempt to enter Lewis W. Henry's home at the corner of Perkins and Fourth streets. A man was seen attempting to enter the front door and peeping in the windows. The night-watchman notified Henrys and a thorough search of the neighborhood was made without results.

It developed today that the person or persons who made an attempt to enter Henry's house and Capp's garage Tuesday night spent the night under Will M. Sparks' house, corner of Main and Fifth streets. A cellar is being dug under the house and members of the Sparks family believe they heard persons under the house Tuesday night.

It was reported today that prowlers were about the Dillon property just south of the Masonic Temple, but Mr. and Mrs. Rich Reed, who live in the south side of the house, heard no one. Mrs. O. P. Dillon, who lives in the north side, is out of the city. Some men living in the neighborhood where the prowlers have been working for two or three nights were up last night until after midnight watching for them to return, but saw no suspicious characters.

FRENCH CAPITAL EXPECTS TO BE BESEIGED BY THE GERMAN ARMY

Kaiser's Troops Will Force Back Allies Until Northern Paris Forts Are Engaged.

IS INDICATED BY ACT TODAY

General Gallient, Chief Strategist of French Army, is Placed in Supreme Command of Defense.

HE GIVES OUT STATEMENT

Entire French Government is Moved to Bordeaux—Fighting at the Same Place Today.

(By United Press.)
Paris, Sept. 3.—Paris expects to be besieged. Military experts insist, however, that to isolate the capital would be too much even for the wonderful German fighting machine. The allied lines expect to be forced back until the Germans engage the northern forts of Paris.

This was demonstrated when the government today placed general Gallieni in supreme command of the entire defense of Paris. Last Saturday he was named military governor of the city. He is the chief strategist of the French army and knows more of the Paris defenses than any other man.

His announcement today follows: "Every attempt of the enemy to break through at any point in the north has been blocked. The German center has thrown its entire weight against ours without making the slightest impression. We may surprise the Germans yet for their right is engaged in a most deadly struggle."

The general denied stories that French and English wounded are ill treated by the Germans but said that they received equal treatment with the German wounded.

The entire French government is now moved to Bordeaux.

The heaviest fighting on the French front today was that in which the French left and the German right are still engaged, the Germans throwing their greatest weight on all allied line that extended roughly speaking from just south of Montdidier to Roye and to Noyon. The German cavalry had swept south to the neighborhood of Compiègne Soissons, and has been engaged for 48 hours with the United British-French cavalry division. This fighting covers a wide stretch and is reported to be chiefly of a skirmish nature. The fighting between Montdidier, Roye and Noyon is of the most sanguinary character. The allied line is very strongly entrenched and is heavily supported with artillery and machine guns. It is admitted at the war office that the Germans have brought many fresh troops into action and it is considered inevitable that a new line is being formed on which the allies will fall back.

All of the military hospitals south of Paris are filled with wounded brought from the North. Among them are many British. The wounded praise the bravery of the German infantry in the highest terms but state they are being deliberately sacrificed by their officers who keep them in action against artillery without any attempt to silence the guns or to take cover. The Germans move straight ahead, unopposed for

LONDON OFFICE IS SILENT TODAY

Because of Absence of Bulletins, Likely Battle Before Paris May be Decisive One.

IF GERMANS ARE CHECKED

Then Allies Will be Ready For Offensive Movement—Rumors About Turkey's Stand.

(By United Press.)
London, Sept. 3.—Not one word regarding the condition of the front came from the war office today. Because of this military experts agree the present battle just north of Paris may prove decisive. Should the Germans be checked before the outer forts are reached the allies would be ready for an immediate offensive movement.

The Russian embassy declared today the cossacks were again operating in eastern Prussia and that they had penetrated to a point near the Vistula.

The embassy again insisted the Russians would be within striking distance of Berlin within a month.

Various rumors regarding Turkey are current but nothing official is known and the Turkish ambassador here insists Turkey is remaining neutral.

Communication with the continent was precarious today. The removal of the French government to Bordeaux was expected to interfere with the speedy transmission of news from the immediate theatre of war already subject to delays because of the complicated system of censorship. The government however, continues extremely confident that Paris will not be occupied by the Germans. The belief is growing that the high tide of the German offensive movement has been reached and that the time is approaching when the allies will be able to assume the offensive in turn.

The fact that the Germans have withdrawn all of their forces from Alsace, leaving only a small screen of reservists there is declared to be highly significant. Retrograde advances saying that the fourteenth Austrian army corps is among those which met disaster in the fighting which culminated in the fall of Lemberg show conclusively that the reports of the withdrawals of troops from the west are true. The fourteenth was one of the corps sent from Austria to aid in the campaign against France. That it was withdrawn and sent to Lemberg would indicate that the Petrograd statements that Austria was risking her entire military strength in her invasion of Russian Poland, and in repelling the invasion of Galicia was well founded. It is believed here that there are now no Austrian forces engaged in the fighting in France and that Germany is compelled to depend on her resources.

CARDINAL CHIESA IS ELECTED POPE

Former Assistant Papal Secretary of State and Archbishop of Bologna is Chosen Today.

DECISION ON 9th BALLOT

New Pontiff Chooses to be Known as Benedictus 15—To Name Coronation Date Later.

ELECTION TRIBUTE TO PIUS

It is Considered Certain New Pope Will Carry Out Policies of the Late Pontiff.

BY HENRY WOOD.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Rome, Sept. 3.—Cardinal Gaetano Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna and former assistant papal secretary of state was today elected pope, succeeding the late pontiff, Pius X. The election was on the ninth ballot. With all of the ceremony prescribed by the century-old traditions of the Catholic church the new occupant of the fisherman's throne received the first adoration of the cardinals in the conclave who had balloted since Monday in the election.

The new pontiff chose to be known as Benedictus XV and will later designate the date for his coronation.

With the conclave called while all Europe was involved in a devastating war, which was largely responsible for the death of Pope Pius from a broken heart, the election of Benedictus XV will go down in history as taking place at one of the most critical times in history. Several foreign cardinals have not yet arrived in Rome. Among those absent are Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal O'Connell, of the United States. In the conclave were 57 members of the Sacred College, a majority of them Italians.

The election of Cardinal Della Chiesa to the papal throne is not only a tribute to the late pontiff, but also to his closest adviser, Cardinal Merry Del Val. As assistant secretary of state and later as a cardinal and archbishop of Bologna, Cardinal Della Chiesa was one of Merry Del Val's most ardent supporters and in return enjoyed the fullest confidence of the secretary of state. Being on the best of terms with the Italian government, it is considered certain that the new pope will carry on the policy of Pope Pius, looking toward the healing of the long-standing breach between the quirk and the Vatican.

When the scrutiny of votes today showed the election of Cardinal Della Chiesa, the secretary of the conclave, Masters of ceremonies and the Vatican were at once admitted to the sistine chapel. In accordance with the old traditions the cardinal deacon accompanied by the heads of other orders of the cardinals presented themselves and asked whether the election was accepted. With the reply in the affirmative the canopies over the thrones of all other cardinals dropped to the floor that the newly elected pontiff alone remaining in place. With the admission of Cardinal Della Chiesa's priest the new pontiff was then garbed in the white robe which was in readiness in a cabinet adjoining the chapel.

Attired in his robes as head of the church, Pope Benedictus then ascended the temporary papal throne where he received the first adoration of the cardinals and gave his first

ARE NOW SAFE ON AMERICAN SOIL

Members of Coleman Party of Tourists and Miss Georgia Amos Land in New York Today.

MESSAGES RECEIVED HERE

Miss Coleman Will Arrive Home Tomorrow and Others Will go to Their Various Homes.

All Rushville European tourists for whom relatives and friends here had felt some concern because of the European war are now safe on American soil. The party of school teachers which Henrietta Coleman conducted on a tour and Miss Georgia Amos both landed in New York today.

Mrs. Emily Coleman, mother of Miss Coleman, received a telegram from New York about noon today from Henrietta saying that the party had landed and that she would reach Rushville tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Amos, living south of the city, also received a telegram today from New York stating that their daughter, Miss Georgia, who has been on a tour of Egypt and Italy, had also landed. She will remain in New York a few days and will arrive here the first of next week.

The Coleman party arrived on the Italian steamship San Guglielmo, from Naples. The boat signaled Sandy Hook last night, according to morning dispatches, and was expected to dock the first thing this morning. The vessel sailed from Naples Saturday, August 22 and has been twelve days on the Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos received a cablegram Friday, August 25, stating that Miss Georgia Amos and Miss Claret Moore of Indianapolis, with whom she traveled, expected to sail that day. It is doubtful if they came on the same steamer as the Coleman party which sailed three days sooner. But it was never learned from what port Miss Amos and Miss Moore sailed. The place was given in the message, but it could not be understood. The belief was that the name had been given wrong in transmitting the message.

Doubtless the members of the Coleman party will go directly to their various homes judging from Miss Carrie Ong, a member of the party, is instructor in English in the Columbus high school. Miss Helen Scott's home is in Clinton, Ind., and Miss Benevise Brown, with Miss Scott, is a teacher in the schools here, lives in Akron, Ind. Miss Zuelia Raber, another member of the party, lives in Woleottville, Ind. She is a sister of O. L. Raber, who taught science in the high school here last year. Mrs. V. P. Bird, the remaining one in the party, lives in Greensburg.

The crowd sailed from New York, Friday, June 20. The S. S. California on which they sailed met with an accident off the Irish coast when it struck a rock and the girls had quite an experience on the first leg of their trip. They landed at Glasgow and proceeded down through Scotland and England and across the channel to Holland. They traveled through Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy, but that is as far as they got. Their itinerary contemplated continued travel through Switzerland and France.

The front at the Gem theatre has been redecorated and changed. The change adds much to the appearance

INSPECTION TO BEGIN SHORTLY

Fire Chief Walter Easley Will Have Flues Examined to Guard Against Fires.

COMMON CAUSE IN WINTER

Many Will Abandon Use of Gas For Coal or Other Fuel and That's Where Danger Lies.

Anticipating an increased number of fires this winter from defective flues because of a more general use of coal and wood as fuel, Walter Easley, fire chief, will shortly begin a general inspection of the city.

Many people this winter will abandon the use of gas for heating purposes, and as is nearly always the case, the flues are very dangerous when not repaired before using coal or other fuel. The gas, it has been found, seems to eat out the mortar from between the bricks and several fires are known to have resulted from changing from gas to coal without first inspecting the flue.

Fire Chief Easley believes that this is the season of the year when these matters should be looked after and the fire department will use every means to prevent fires. It is planned to have blanks printed and distributed among the members of the fire department. When ever they see a flue that is considered dangerous the blank will be filled out and sent to the property owner. This will be done as a warning and while there is nothing compulsory to the order it will be made for the good of the property owner.

It has been suggested that where the property owners are not certain about the conditions of the flues that they notify the chief and the necessary inspection will be made. Fire Chief Easley will also do some inspecting on his own accord. Basements in the business district, furnaces and other heating systems will be gone over and all fire escapes will be examined carefully.

Fire Chief Easley stated today that he would rather go over the ground himself than send for an assistant fire marshal. There are some places in the city where a visit of the fire marshal would prove costly to the property owners and Mr. Easley believes for this reason the people will co-operate with him in the movement to prevent any costly blaze. The condition of the alleys as well as the buildings will be noted with regard to their cleanliness and the property owner will be requested to remove any trash that might harbor a fire.

Rushville has been fortunate in having few costly fires, but the very slightest neglect might mean thousands of dollars loss and a few dollars spent for prevention is nothing as compared with a fire.

TO INDIANA IF ANY PLACE

Wilson Says he Will Speak Here if He Campaigns at All.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 3.—President Wilson was invited today to speak in the Indiana campaign and he replied that if he entered the campaign at all he will go to Indiana. He intimated, however, that he did not believe he would go on the stump. He is said to believe that it will be unnecessary to take part in the campaign.

Fashion Favors Necessity

White hosiery was never more fashionable and manufacturers and retailers rejoice.

Owing to the shortage of dyes some colors will be difficult to get—and there are no imports from Germany.

But there is plenty of good trim, well made American white hosiery—the most fashionable shade.

Probably enough colors, too, to go around.

The best brands and the best places to buy them are advertised from time to time in this paper.

Literally, the newspaper serves its readers from head to foot.

mation until they are almost annihilated.

It is stated that the number of prisoners taken by the French runs well into the thousands. Many scouting parties of Uhlans have been trapped and cut off. Many of the German officers taken prisoner admit that they have been completely surprised by the stubborn defense of the allies. They had hoped to completely overwhelm the French defense by a guard attack in force but have found this impossible. These prisoners confirm the reports of terrible German losses.

English's Opera House, Indianapolis, is the objective point of all state fair visitors, because this theatre has always taken pains to provide an extra line attraction for this occasion. This year the attraction is to be Thomas W. Ryler's new musical comedy, "The Queen of the Movies," which will play the entire week with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Translated from the German by Glen MacDonough. "The Queen of the Movies" has lent itself readily to American adaptation without the usual fundamental revisions. In the first place, it has a well defined plot—a plot which, though simple and easily handled in musical comedy style, holds the interest of the audience throughout. Secondly, the German authors have laid the scene of their sketch in Washington, D. C., a fact which makes it comparatively easy for the dramatist on this side of the water to inject the necessary Americanizations.

The music is by Jean Gilbert, the youthful Berlin composer, who has jumped into such sudden popularity abroad and is well known in America, as well, several of his musical productions having been produced here with great success.

A splendid cast of singing and dancing artists, good comedians and plenty of good lines to give these comedians opportunity for funmaking, all go to make "The Queen of the Movies" an attraction that you won't want to miss when you go to Indianapolis for the state fair.

Posey Township Convention.

The Republicans of Posey township will hold a convention at the Arlington high school building Saturday evening, September 5, at seven-thirty o'clock. Speeches will be made by Pat Lynch, Republican candidate for congress, and Will M. Sparks, Republican candidate for judge of the Rush circuit court.

Robert's Candidacy.

An other matter that is causing a great deal of worry and apprehension among the Democratic machine leaders is the candidacy of Donn Roberts of Terre Haute for governor. Roberts is a man who was tried in the Vigo circuit court last spring on charges of election corruption and acquitted after a mysterious conference at the Demison House at Indianapolis in which Crawford Fairbanks, the big brewer who liked to be referred to as the boss of the Democratic party, participated. The late John E. Lamb of Terre Haute one of the biggest figures in Indiana Democracy in the last twenty years, a few months before his death, referred publicly to Roberts as follows:

"His only claim to political distinction lies in his ability to stuff ballot boxes, pad poll books, and vote repeaters."

For several weeks the better element of Indiana Democracy including the editors of most every Democratic newspaper in the State has been hoping the announcement of Roberts's candidacy for governor was a joke. It developed however, that Roberts is not only an active candidate for the nomination of Governor but he will be able to go into the contest with the support of some of the biggest influences in the Democratic machine at his back.

Another thing that is said to be worrying the Democratic machine leaders is the possibility that Governor Ralston may be driven from the stump on account of the acts of the last Legislature for which he, in the end, will be held responsible by the people of the State of Indiana. It is said that Democratic machine leaders recognize the fact that if someone asked Governor Ralston in the course of one of his public addresses, how it happened that laws were written in the Indiana statutes without having been passed by the legislature, he will not only be greatly embarrassed but every law loving Democrat in Indiana will be embarrassed.

The Democratic state committee has decided to delay Governor Ralston's appearance on the stump as late as possible. It had been said that he would make his first appearance on Sept. 10th, now the announcement is made that he will not appear until September 15. Shrewd political observers say that they would not be surprised, if before that date rolls around, announcement is made that Governor Ralston would not take the stump in behalf of Homer L. Cook and the Democratic state ticket.

Another thing that is worrying the Taggart machine leaders is the fact that Congress probably will remain in session until well along this month. They have been counting on the Democratic senators and the Democratic representatives carrying the burden of the fighting in the public speaking campaign. With these men not available for service, the Taggart machine leaders now realize that they will be in a bad way to make a public defense of the acts of the last Legislature and the Democratic extravagance in the conduct of affairs which resulted in a material increase in the state tax levy.

The Taggart machine leaders realize it is said that they will have a great amount of explaining to do in this campaign, and it has now become a serious proposition with them to secure enough explainers to do the work.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

STANFORD WITHDRAWS.

(Connorsville News.)

The withdrawal of Attorney Le-lan Stanford, of Liberty, from the race for Judge of this Judicial district is the act of an honorable man, one who could not ever by indirection knowingly aid a movement to thwart the will of the general public of the district. Mr. Stanford is eminently fitted for the Judgeship and under normal conditions would have commanded a heavy vote in the district. But the judicial campaign opened this year long before party organizations got into action. As the News has contended from the first the fight to oust George L. Gray from office—and always has been—nonpartisan. Confronted by charges that if true render him wholly unfit to serve on the bench, that even to date he has not attempted logically to answer, the people of all parties determined there must be a change. Raymond Springer was found to be available as a candidate and people of all parties at once pledged him generous support. Though Mr. Springer is, and was nominated as a Republican, these pledges had come in great numbers from voters all over the district. Mr. Springer had gained a start that neither Mr. Stanford nor any other man could overcome. It has been the forlorn hope of Gray and his henchmen to keep a third man in the field. To this end one or more utterly false statements appeared in a Liberty paper in the interest of Gray in attempting to show that this paper had made an attack on Stanford. The Progressive party was entirely within its rights in putting a third candidate in the field to complete its organization and they made a worthy selection. But the die had been cast. From the first, even dating back to their nominating convention, it was manifest that the paramount aim of many delegates and party members was to rid the district of George L. Gray as Judge. Mr. Stanford, able lawyer and keen reasoner that he is, rightly interpreting the true situation, has retired, leaving the public entirely unhampered in their fight to restore to the people the benefits of a properly administered judicial system.

Republican Party Management

Plan From Platform Adopted by Indiana Republicans
State Convention April 23, 1914.

Recognizing that party management and control should, at all times, be responsive to, and representative of, the sentiment and will of the membership of the party, and, believing that an indifferent attitude toward this principle has been responsible in a great measure for party dissensions in the past, we pledge ourselves to such reforms in the methods of party organization, management and control that in the future, the right of individual participation on the part of membership within the party shall be sacred and inviolate and we further pledge ourselves that party programs, party platforms and party candidates shall be expressive only of the majority sentiment within the party, free from dictation or duress on the part of party management. And we heartily endorse the action of the national committee in readjusting the basis of representation in national conventions of the party and in revising the rules governing the making up of the temporary roll.

1913 LEGISLATURE MAKES "SALARY GRAB" RECORD

Democratic Machine Leaders Waste Tax Payers Money in a Reckless Manner—Some Interesting Figures.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The Democratic legislature of 1913 was the worst salary grabbing session in the history of the State of Indiana. The last general assembly increased salaries to the amount of $61,070 a year. This includes additional pay given to persons in the state house, in different parts of the state, extra compensation to judges, etc. It includes the additional pay voted to county officers, circuit and superior judges and others. It does not include about $67,000 paid the Crawford Fairbanks-Tom Taggart Democratic machine's wards in the legislature, the $31,000 for printing and supplies, the $32,000 increased salaries in Indianapolis, nor the increased appropriations to different institutions, boards and commissions.

Here are some of the "salary grabs" that were pulled off by the Democratic machine through the agency of the 1913 general assembly. State superintendent of public instruction from $3,500 to $5,000. Increase $1,500.

Assistant superintendent of public instruction from $2,000 to $2,500. Increase, $500.

Deputy state superintendent of public instruction from $1,500 to $1,800. Increase, $300.

Clerk in state superintendent's office from $1,200 to $1,400. Increase, $200.

Clerk in the office of secretary of state from $1,500 to $1,800. Increase, $300.

Recording clerk in the office of the secretary of state from $1,000 to $1,200.

Stenographer in the office of secretary of state from $720 to $900. Increase, $180.

Clerk and stenographer in the office of secretary of state from $720 to $900. Increase $180.

Oil inspector from $2,500 to $3,500, and $500 was given that office for traveling expenses and $500 for office expenses, making a total increase of $2,000.

Clerk to the oil inspector from $900 to $1,200. Increase $300.

Executive clerk in the Governor's office from $900 to $1,200.

Assistant bank clerk and securities clerk in the office of the auditor of state from $720 to $900. Increase, $180.

Clerk and bookkeeper in the state treasurer's office from $1,800 to $2,000. Increase, $200.

Five stenographers and clerks to the judges of the supreme court from $800 to $840 each. Increase, $200.

Clerk of the state printing board from $1,500 to $2,500. Increase, $1,000.

Assistant clerk of the printing board from $900 to $1,500. Increase, $600.

Clerk of the board of forestry from $600 to $720. Increase $120.

Pay of the employees at the Soldiers and Sailors' monument increased $1,000.

Assistant deputy clerk of the supreme and appellate courts from $1,200 to $1,500. Increase, $300.

Fee clerk in the office of the clerk of the supreme and appellate courts from $750 to $900. Increase, $150.

Second assistant reporter of the supreme and appellate courts from $1,500 to $2,000. Increase, $500.

Clerk of the board of public accounts from $2,500 to $2,800. Increase, $300.

The salary of each traveling deputy attorney-general from $1,200 to $1,600. Increase, $400. The law does not specify the number of traveling deputies, so there is no telling how many are grabbing on the $400 increase.

Second deputy attorney-general from $1,800 to $2,100. Increase, $300.

MILLER IS BETTING FAVORITE

Bet Is Posted That Miller Will Receive Three Times as Many Votes as Beveridge.

Two interesting wagers were posted recently on an Indianapolis betting board. The first was an offer of $250 to $1,000 that Hugh Th. Miller, Republican nominee for United States senator, will receive twice as many votes as does Beveridge. The other was an offer of $250 to $2,000 that Miller will receive three times as many votes as Beveridge.

FACTS REGARDING 1913 LEGISLATURE

The 1913 Democratic legislature cost the tax payers of Indiana $532.50 more for each day of the session than did the 1907 session—the last one under Republican control. There were 150 members in both legislatures. Each lasted 61 days.

The records show that the Taggart-Fairbanks Democratic machine employed 63 doorkeepers for the House during the 1913 legislative session. There are only four doors to the House Chamber.

The last Democratic State Senate bought 5,187 writing pens. There were only 50 senators. The Democratic House made up of 100 members bought 2,452 writing pens. They also had to have 2,476 lead pencils and they also found it advisable to employ a large number of typewriters and they dug into the State treasury in a substantial way to pay the bills. The Democratic Senate bought 24 key rings, but for what purpose it has not yet been explained.

The Democratic Senate also bought 12 rolls of pink tape and the Democratic House bought the same amount.

The last Democratic House bought six large needles, but the Democratic Senate only ordered two.

The cost of printing and supplies used by the last Democratic Legislature was $31,917.49. Of that sum about $12,000 was spent for printing and the balance $19,917.49 being expended for supplies and when the Senate adjourned practically all of the supplies that were left over disappeared except a desk, that was too unwieldy to be carried away and a lot of blank forms that could not be used for any purpose, but for the one for which they were printed, nor could be sold for waste paper.

The last Democratic legislature bought 120,000 letterheads and envelopes.

The last Democratic legislature bought 2,743 blotters and 134,500 pins.

The rubber bands bought by the last Democratic legislature cost the tax payers of Indiana $238.20.

Mr. Indiana Taxpayer How Do You Like This?

Indianapolis, Ind., July 2.—The total expenses of the government of the State of Indiana during 1908, the last year of the last Republican administration, was $4,724,253.39. In 1913, under a Democratic administration of the state's affairs, the total expense was $4,966,168.37, an increase of $241,914.98. This is one of the reasons why the Democratic state legislature of 1913 saw fit to raise the state tax levy.

Here are some figures from the official state records that show very plainly that the taxpayers of Indiana are paying dearly for the present Democratic brand of state government. In 1908, during the last year of the last Republican state administration, the salaries and expenses of all regular standing boards and commissions totalled $242,558.02. In 1913, under Democratic rule, the salaries and commissions of all regular standing boards and commissions totalled $428,521.60, an increase of $185,963.58, or 76.6 per cent.

Why should the taxpayers of Indiana pay $185,963.58 more in salaries and expenses for standing boards and commissions in one year under a Democratic administration than was paid during the same length of time under a Republican administration? This is another one of the big reasons why your taxes are so high.

Why should the legislative session of 1907, under a Republican administration cost but $130,000 while the session of 1913 under a Democratic administration, cost the taxpayers $162,000? Both the sessions were 60 days in length and there were the same number of members in both houses in the session of 1907 as there were in the session of 1913.

The truth of the matter is that most of the increase in the cost of the Democratic session went to doorkeepers and clerks who were not needed—employees whose hardest work was to draw their salaries. There were men on the payroll of the last state legislature at straight salary for the full session who did not average one day in Indianapolis each week during the session.

As vote for the Democratic state ticket this year will be interpreted by the Democratic politicians as an approval of this reckless expenditure of the taxpayers' money.

MANY FANS GOING ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Baseball Special Over L. E. & W. to Newcastle Sunday Will Leave Here at 12:30 O'clock.

ARCADIANS EXPECT TO WIN

Arrangements have been completed for the running of the special train over the L. E. & W. to Newcastle Sunday for the ball game between the Arcadians and the Newcastle Hoosiers. The train will leave here at 12:30 o'clock and returning leave Newcastle at 6:30 o'clock. The train will make all stops between here and Newcastle and the fans of these towns will have a chance to make the trip.

From all indications a large crowd will make the trip as the fans are anxious to see the Arcadians defeat Newcastle on their home lot. This trick has never been accomplished as yet by a Rushville team and great interest is being taken in the game. The Arcadians will remain over in Newcastle for a game Monday and the team is confident of winning both contests. Geary, Heller and Fox will be the Rushville pitchers and the fans can expect some real baseball.

BRAVES GIVING GIANTS BATTLE

Many Fans Around National Circuit Look to see Stalling's Outfit Win the Pennant

MACK HAS AMERICAN CINCHED

Bill Radiden, Who Jumped to Feds Has Not Been Missed by Boston. Well Balanced Team.

BY HAL SMERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Sept. 3.—With the season but a little more than a month to run Connie Mack's wonderful ball club—the Athletics—seen to have the American league pennant lashed to their mast. Only the greatest kind of a miracle could prevent the mackian phalanx from annexing another flag. The Athletics are so far ahead of their nearest rivals that the fans around the circuit have lost interest. They are spending their time now figuring what will oppose Mack's bunch in the big series this fall.

George Stalling's Braves of Boston seem to be an almost unanimous choice for the honor of meeting the Athletics. The wonderful work of the Beantown club since July 1 has impressed all the critics around both both major loops and many are doing them to beat the Athletics if it falls to them to defend the National league in the big setto.

In view of this it might not be amiss to scan the personnel of this Boston gang and see just exactly who's who. Of course, the main cog in the Boston machine is Johnny Evers former Cub and rated as the premier second sacker in the game.

Stallings gives Evers credit for the great playing his club has been putting up. He declares that Evers has directed the work on the field like a Napoleon and that his courage has inspired every other member of the team.

Evers' running mate in guarding the keynote sack is Maranville, the smallest ball player in captivity. He is even more of a midget than Ownie Bush, the diminutive Tiger star. With Evers coaching him along, Maranville's work this season has been a revelation. Possessing almost perfect mechanical ability, Maranville is fast developing into a brainy player as well and when he picks up a few more finer points of the national pastime he will be the leading artist in the line. Evers waxes mightily enthusiastic over this youngster. "He's the greatest mechanical shortstop in the game right now," Evers said recently. "And it won't be long at the rate he is developing until he will be as brainy as any of them. You want to watch his smoke when he reaches the top."

"Red" Smith, erstwhile member of the Brooklyn club, is guarding the hard corner—third base—for the Braves. This position had worried Stallings all year until he landed Smith. It had been one of the weak points on the team. Smith, filled the hole. Although not a finished fielder he is more than making up for deficiency by the manner in which he is larruping the horsehide. His hitting has played an important part in many of the Brave's victories.

Stallings fooled the wise ones around the Tener circuit by keeping Schmidt on first base. When the season opened and it was seen Stallings was going to depend on Schmidt to hold down first base, the critics began to pan the Boston manager. Schmidt wouldn't do, they said. Schmidt fooled the wise ones and proved the worth of Stallings' judgment. The big fellow has been playing a remarkably good fielding game. He was raw at the start of the season but he proved noticeably every day and it wasn't long until he took on a polish that stamped him as better than the ordinary. And he has been hitting at good clip right along, being one of the most consistent clubbers on the team.

Gowdy, an ex-Giant, is doing the bulk of the catching for the Braves. Whaling is his first assistant. With the loss of Bill Radiden, who jumped to the Feds, it was predicted that the Boston catching staff would be weak. On the contrary it has been proven strong all year. Gowdy has been driving in more than his share of the Braves runs.

Boston's pitching staff is already pretty well known as the result of its great work since July 1. The staff—that is the active staff—consists of Tyler a southpaw, and Rudolph and James, right handers. These three have done practically all of the flogging for the Beantown club. Stallings has juggled them along and despite the fact that they are all small men, as pitchers go, they have never shown signs of weakening under the strain. Besides the star trio, Stallings has several classy youngsters who look mighty good. Crutcher and Strand both have taken part in several games and look to have the making of stars.

The outfield is a well balanced department. Devore, former Giant, Catcher, former Card, Whitted, Connelly, are most frequently in the lineup. Stallings uses many changes in his outfield using left hand batters on the day right hand pitchers are working against his club and right hand hitters when southpaws are working. That his judgment has been good is shown by the standing of the Braves in the percentage column.

RUSH COUNTY TO PLAY BIG PART

Both Local Trainers and Horses Will be up in Front at State Fair Races Next Week

ENTRIES MADE FROM HERE

Frank Lindsay Wins 2:35 Trot at Shelbyville Wednesday With Wila—Hayt Colt in Money

George A. Ryan, best Indiana authority today mentions some Rush county horses and drivers in connection with an article in the Indianapolis Star concerning the races at the Indiana state fair next week.

Lucy Reynolds, by Simmore, owned by Elmer Humes of this city, is entered in the 2:30 trot Tuesday. She is being trained by Mart Wilson, a Rush county man, and will be raced by him. Ryan says she has been trotting around 2:10 for several weeks and a few days ago stepped in 2:09. Ryan declares that Mr. Humes is one of those owners who believes they should be educated before sending them to the races. The mare is entered in the :27 trot Monday and the :24 trot Wednesday and may start in any one of the three.

Aileen Patch, owned by Albert Capp and Frank Wilson of this city and raced by Dick Wilson of Rushville, is entered in the 2:20 trot of Tuesday's program. This daughter of The Patchen Boy has been a consistent winner on the half mile tracks this year and Ryan says she will be seen down the big line next year. She won at Newcastle and Connersville, but was cheated out of a race at the county fair here last week by the rain. She was to have started the last day. The mare will be raced at Shelbyville tomorrow. Ryan declares that the mare is a good one because Dick Wilson would not be apt to bother with a trotter that has no class. Wilson and Capp have The Jester, a bay gelding with the mark of 2:29, by The Exponent, entered in the :27 trot Monday and the :24 trot Wednesday.

Harrie Jones of this city is expected to let them know he is in the race when he draws the reins up over the back of Gentle Zoe in the 2:10 trotting class Thursday. The Indiana horse critic says she has been going good on the county fair circuit and should be ready for the mile tracks next year. She is owned by J. E. Whiteselle of Corsicana, Texas.

Ryan says Curt Gosnell's product, F. A. L., by Anderson Wilkes, who has been a mile in 2:11 over a half mile track, will be a contender. He is entered to race either in the 2:15 trotting class Monday or the 2:17 class for trotters Friday.

The Maid, a daughter of Charley Hayt, the little bay stallion owned here, is believed to be better than ever, according to Ryan. She is owned by Oscar Wright of Franklin, Ind. She is another of the consistent county fair winners. She was one of the surprises of the southern circuits last fall.

Wila, a bay mare by Walnut Hall, won the 2:35 trot in straight heats at the Shelby county fair at Shelbyville yesterday. Frank Lindsay, a Rush county trainer, held the reins. The best time was 2:34.

Tommy Hayt, a son of Charley Hayt, divided third and fourth money in the 2:25 pace with Miss Directly at Shelbyville yesterday. He is owned in this county. He won the first heat of the race, the best time of which was :26.

ALLIES POSITION IS SATISFACTORY

All of Their Lines Appear to be Holding the Germans Except The Western Wing.

SIGNIFICANT RETREATS

Russia Misjudges Strength of Austrians and Has to Halt March on Berlin For That Reason.

(By United Press.)
New York, Sept. 3.—Russia's advance on Berlin has been checked and the encouraging hope of the allies in the west of a quick Slav movement into the heart of Germany is fading. Russia's initial strategy has failed for the same reason that France's first drawn plans were defeated. The general staffs of both countries were dominated by a passion for an immediate offensive at all costs and in each case the offensive was the wrong thing to do at the moment.

Russia has had to halt her march through east Prussia, probably fifty miles from the German first line of defense along the Vistula, because her strategists underestimated Austria's strength. The persistent penetration into Poland of Austrian forces appear to have been belittled at Petrograd (to acknowledge Russia's new anti-German name for her capital) until there came a realization that the Russian left flank would be in imminent danger if the advance on Berlin were continued.

Semi-appreciation of the danger doubtless was felt a week ago and accounts for the sudden absence of news concerning Russia's second army which was reported to be moving on Dosen. This army undoubtedly was diverted to the South to check the Austrians, but with such little success that all Russia's military plans now have had to halt in the North while the underestimated Austrian danger in the South is obliterated.

The distance between the late scene of Russia's advance through East Prussia and her present operations about Lemberg, in Galicia, is three hundred miles. Strategic conditions in the two areas are curiously similar. In the North, Russia's stationary troops face the heavily fortified Vistula, while in the South the San river, with the two strong military centers at Przemyel and Jaroslav, fifty miles west of the Russian front at Lemberg, bare the route to the west.

The position of the allies in France is not unsatisfactory. All the lines appear to be holding the Germans except the western wing which has had to give way slightly. There is much significance in the direction of the retreat which, according to the French official report, has taken place to the west and southwest. This means the left wing of the allies refuses to be driven eastward to be locked up in the La Fere-Laon fortresses, as the Germans so much desire. Instead the left army is keeping itself intact in the field.

The intimation from Paris that Montdidier marks the new central position of the allies in the western operations, means a splendid strategic position has been assumed. Montdidier is on high ground commanding the three roads that lead through the Angle formed by the Somme and Aisne rivers running from Amiens towards the LaFere fortifications. Montdidier Roye, Noyon and Compiègne form the corners of a quadrilateral of highways important to preserve if the German turning movement around LaFere is to be defeated.

Latest Picture of the Kaiser, Who Risks All on This War.

This is the latest formal picture of the German kaiser. It was taken shortly before the war began. Europe's war lord is easily the most commanding, powerful and interesting figure in the conflict. He has for years been preparing for this great struggle. He is now risking everything—the power of his empire, the future of his people and the stability of his own dynasty—by hurling his mighty fighting machine against some of the greatest nations of the world. What fate awaits William II?

TALK ORGANIZATION AT MEETING HERE

Republican Workers Meet in Court House With Organizer From State Headquarters

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB PLANNED

The Republican precinct committeemen and party workers met with State Organizer Hayes yesterday afternoon in the court house assembly room. The meeting was simply an organization meeting and plans for the campaign and advice for the workers of this county were the topic. The organization committee from state headquarters is making a canvass of all the districts and urging the importance of a complete organization.

Several lines of work were discussed and the young men's movement was launched. Jack Higgins of Newcastle told of the plan to organize the young men in every county in the district. The organization will be known as the Jackson club and the plan as suggested will be put in force here in a short time. Pat Lynch, of Newcastle, Republican candidate for congress, was present and made a brief talk.

Other speakers were Judge Forkner, also of Newcastle and Capt. John K. Gowdy of this city. Capt. Gowdy was the only local man to speak.

CABLE WAS DEFECTIVE.

The cable to hang the weight which controls the striking of the court house clock has arrived, but upon examination Joe Dickman, custodian, found that it was defective in several places and notified the company. A new cable will be sent but it will not be many days before the clock will be striking again. The old cable broke recently and the weight fell, striking a steel beam. Plastering on the ceiling of the third floor was jarred loose.

War Brings Revival of Tattooing Craze

(By United Press.)

London (By mail to New York). Sept. 3.—War has brought with it a revival of the craze for tattooing in London. Soldiers going to the front, especially territorials, want to have their skins decorated before leaving and the professional tattooers are doing a rushing business.

"They come with pals, like a man going to have a tooth pulled," said a Tottenham court road tattooer in telling of the rush. "Many bring their own designs, such as a heart with the name of a girl underneath, or two hearts with hands clasped across and the name of the girl. Other designs are of for-get-me-nots with the name of the girl, the year etc."

"For King and Country, 1914" tattooed in colors across the chest is one of the favorites outside of the love designs. The French tricolor and Union Jack entwined has also been in demand. One member of the rangers had the badge of his regiment tattooed on his arm in a design three by four inches.

Many girls, sweethearts of soldiers have also been tattooed. A majority of the young women have had their arms marked with designs in for-get-me-nots with the name of their soldier lover and the year underneath.

One soldier calling on the Tottenham Court road tattooer appeared with the top of his head shaved and had a picture of King George tattooed on the bald spot.

SHIP OF MERCY TO SAIL

Red Cross Vessel Will Leave Harbor Next Monday

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 3.—Painted a snowy white, with a broad red band about her hull, the ship of mercy, Hamburg, will sail from New York Monday instead of Saturday. On board will be 120 nurses and thirty surgeons. Every one on the ship, including the sailors, will be American born. The Red Cross ship also will carry a fund of $1,000,000 to be used in the relief work. The ship was to have started Saturday, but had to be held over to be re-painted. Miss Mabel Boardman, of Washington, head of the Red Cross will remain in New York until the ship sails.

TO ASK FOR WAR TAX TOMORROW

President Wilson Will Appear Before Joint Session But Will Not Suggest Means to be Used.

WILL POINT TO DECREASES

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 3.—President Wilson will appear before the joint session of the house and senate at 12:30 tomorrow afternoon, it was announced after a conference between Wilson and Majority Leader Underwood today, to ask for a war tax to raise $100,000,000.

The president's address will not suggest the means of raising this amount, it was stated. Underwood has a plan of securing the money, which he will reveal to the ways and means committees soon. He refused today to disclose any of its details but said the bill will probably be reported in the house next week.

The president's message will point to the $11,000,000 decrease last month and will argue that the treasury should be strengthened at this time so that there need be no withdrawal of funds from banks which need them particularly at this time on account of crop movement and in European business.

Types of Italian Soldiers Who Are Mobilized and Under Orders.

Photos by American Press Association.

Italy's stand in the European war caused much comment from the start. It was thought when Austria declared war on Serbia that Italy would naturally stand with Germany and Austria under the agreement of the triple alliance, but Italy at once declared her neutrality. She claimed that she was not bound by the understanding with Germany and Austria inasmuch as those countries had not been invaded, but were themselves the invaders. It later became evident that Italy's sympathies had switched around to the allies, and when she ordered the mobilization of her troops it was generally believed that she would soon declare war on Austria, thus involving Germany. Italian soldiers are shown here intrenched for battle. The type of Italian infantry comprising most of the army is also shown.

GIVING BETTER CARE TO PATIENTS

Ohio Figures That Hospitalization of One Consumption Prevents Infection of Ten Others

CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN STARTED

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Sept. 3.—Hospitalization of one consumptive prevents the infection of 10 other people. Hospital care and treatment provide practically the one chance of recovery for the patient.

These are the facts on which the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis and the division of tuberculosis of the state health board are basing their present campaign to procure adequate hospital facilities for consumptives. It is estimated that there are 35,000 residents of the state now suffering from the "great white plague."

State health officials have outlined 12 tentative hospital districts of from four to six counties each, wherein campaigns will be started for the erection of district tuberculosis hospitals to be maintained jointly by the co-operating counties.

Sixty-five of Ohio's 88 counties have no provision for the hospital care of their tuberculosis victims. It is in these counties that the campaign is to be waged. This movement is possible now for the first time in the history of the state through the enactment of the amended county district tuberculosis hospital law by the last legislature.

WORK AT YALE

(By United Press.)

Madison, Conn. Sept. 3.—Yale cracked open the 1914 football preliminaries this afternoon when Head Coach Frank Hinkley put a squad of candidates through a limbering up practice. Several veterans answered today's call. There were also a number of promising heavyweights from last year's freshman eleven, as well as several second string men on last year's varsity team. Hinkley's plan is to keep the men at the limbering up process for two weeks so that when real practice begins about Sept. 17 the men will be ready to start right in at scrimmage work. Hinkley, it was stated today, will drill this year's eleven in straight, simple football, and pay little attention to complicated formations.

BRITISH REPORT ON LOSSES IN WAR

Demonstrates English Officers Lead Men Because of High Percentage of Casualties

MISSING NUMBERS OVER 4,000

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 3.—The first report received from General French regarding the British casualties, which covers only the earlier movements in the field, again demonstrates that the British officers lead their men.

The percentage of casualties to the officers is high, a mute tribute to their heroism. It is carefully explained that this is only a partial report and that it does not deal with the recent fighting.

The British field marshal reports: British officers killed, 36; wounded 57; missing, 95; British soldiers killed 72; wounded, 629; missing, 4,183.

STAND ON RATES HELPS WOODMEN

Members are Rapidly Going Back to Order Following Agreement Reached at Toledo

NEW ERA OF PROSPERITY

(By United Press.)

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 3.—Less than three months after the Modern Woodmen of America at their triennial encampment at Toledo, came to a compromised agreement, on the question of rates and the head camp receded from its stand for a rate advance, it has become apparent that the order is entering on a new era of prosperity.

At the close of the encampment it was predicted that the hundred thousand or more persons who had withdrawn from the society would come in for reinstatement before the end of the year. It is now stated at the head camp offices here that this number will be greatly exceeded. It is believed also that because of the healing of the dissensions in the society new accessions, which had practically ceased, will recommence.

Westbrook, Me. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial." — Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis. — "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since." — Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Manston, Wis.

FINED ON CHARGE FILED BY MOTHER

Jack Smith of Milroy Gets $1 and Costs For Drawing Deadly Weapons on His Family.

HE OBJECTS TO MOVING

Jack Smith of Milroy was fined one dollar and costs, amounting to $12.75, this morning by Squire Kratzer on the charge of drawing deadly weapons. Smith was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Cavitt on complaint of his mother, Mrs. Mary Smith, who alleged that he was threatening to kill the family. Mrs. Smith had been advised by physicians to break up housekeeping on account of her health and Jack objected to the taking of the furniture from the house. So insistent was he in his demands that he drew a revolver and threatened to shoot anyone who attempted to move the furniture. Smith was brought to the jail here and the hearing held this morning. On the promise to be good, the surety of peace proceedings against him were dropped.

The Storm Buggy Season Is Open

and we know right in the beginning that we are in a position to furnish you with a Storm Buggy with more up-to-date features, better quality and less price than any dealer in this section of the globe. We really have buggies with doors that won't rattle, and many other new features not found elsewhere. Don't make the mistake the old man did when he started to lead the two calves to pasture. You know how that was? He was leading the calves and when he came to a gate that was hard to open he tied a calf to each boot strap and when he opened the gate the calves ran away with the old man and dragged him at a fast pace over the rough ground. His wife finally reached his side and released him and upbraided him for a fool and asked him if he didn't know better than to tie calves to his boots. "Yes, Ann," he replied, "I didn't get more than four rods until I discovered my mistake." That is the way with some people buying buggies. They find out their mistake too late to do them any good and it is their own fault, because it costs you nothing to look at our buggies and all we want is a chance to show you. We know you will buy them if you look them over. Will you do it? Our advice is do it now.

PETTY THIEVING WORRIES PEOPLE

Residents of East Eighth Street Are
Increased by Operations of
Robbers the Last Few Weeks.

QUANTITIES OF FRUIT STOLEN

Develops Today Thieves Who Attempted to Enter Homes Hid
Under W. M. Sparks' House.

The people of East Eighth street are very much incensed over petty thieving that has been going on in that neighborhood the last few weeks. Only last night the thieves stole four watermelons from Max Goldstein. They were left in a wagon in front of his home. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ogden, 313 East Eighth street, just across the street from Goldstein's home, can't keep any peaches on their trees. They are stolen just as fast as they ripen. It is understood Mr. Goldstein has missed melons before. Other persons living in other parts of the city have complained of late of things being stolen from their back porches.

Only Tuesday night Nightwatchman Sullivan frustrated an attempt to enter Lewis W. Henry's home at the corner of Perkins and Fourth streets. A man was seen attempting to enter the front door and peeping in the windows. The night-watchman notified Henrys and a thorough search of the neighborhood was made without results.

It developed today that the person or persons who made an attempt to enter Henry's house and Capp's garage Tuesday night spent the night under Will M. Sparks' house, corner of Main and Fifth streets. A cellar is being dug under the house and members of the Sparks family believe they heard persons under the house Tuesday night.

It was reported today that prowlers were about the Dillon property just south of the Masonic Temple, but Mr. and Mrs. Rich Reed, who live in the south side of the house, heard no one. Mrs. O. P. Dillon, who lives in the north side, is out of the city. Some men living in the neighborhood where the prowlers have been working for two or three nights were up last night until after midnight watching for them to return, but saw no suspicious characters.
